Temporary Staffing

These employees fill short-term assignments having anticipated end dates.

Long Term Staffing

Many employers use GCG Staffing, Inc. for extended time periods. The advantages are that GCG Staffing, Inc. keeps payroll records, pays all local, state, and federal taxes, pays worker's compensation insurance, unemployment insurance, personal and professional liability insurance, pays for holidays and vacations, and submits W-2 forms. The employer is spared having to worry about these payroll issues, and insurance issues. Our employees are fully bonded.

Temporary to Permanent

Temporary to permanent positions may turn into regular full time jobs when good fits are found between the employee's performance and employer's requirements.

Direct Placement

Some employers ask GCG Staffing, Inc. to find specific types of skilled employees for immediate full time employment for an agreed upon placement fee.

Drug Testing

GCG Staffing, Inc. requires drug testing for illicit drugs for pre employment, random assessments, post accident, and pre promotion purposes. Our preferred certified outside laboratory, the "Dawn Center" is used to confirm positive findings.

Employee Assessment

GCG Staffing, Inc. can handle the entire range of activities required to hire new employees. These activities may include: preparing and running help wanted ads in newspapers, internet, or other media, handling the full range of applicant telephone inquiries concerning employment, scheduling and performing interviews, administering and scoring ability tests (Kenexa "Prove it" tests), requiring drug testing, conducting extensive background checks, making written job offers, arranging for physical examinations after job offers have been made, conducting orientation sessions, and handling all correspondence and telephone work associated with decisions to hire or not to hire each applicant.

Whatever your staffing needs, GCG Staffing, Inc. can meet them. Our highly trained and professional staff are equipped to handle a wide range of human resource challenges.

Commitment and Confidence

We are committed to your needs. We make every effort to take your request and find someone based on your requirements.

We respect your privacy, so we maintain strict confidentiality between our client and ourselves.

We offer competitive bill rates and contracts tailored specifically for your needs.

We know the importance of reputation, and want to earn your repeat business.
